

FoodShare is not counted for public charge...

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) - in Wisconsin is also called FoodShare

- All children born in the United States (U.S.) can get FoodShare benefits if they qualify, regardless of the immigration status of their parents
- Non-citizens who are in the U.S. temporarily cannot get FoodShare (students, undocumented folks)
- Certain non-citizens (refugees, trafficking victims, and asylees) may receive FoodShare benefits without a waiting period
- Other non-citizens, such as lawfully admitted permanent residents, have to live in the U.S. as a qualified immigrant for at least 5 years prior to becoming eligible for FoodShare benefits

Debunking myths about FoodShare

- You will NOT lose your green card because you apply for or receive FoodShare benefits
- You or your family members will NOT be denied the opportunity to apply for scholarships because you get FoodShare benefits
- You or your family members will NOT be required to enroll in the military because you get FoodShare
- Replying to a citizenship verification letter will NOT result in deportation

To apply you can call 1-877-366-3635
or visit GetAQuestCard.org

This institution is an equal opportunity provider.

Policy is subject to change. Contact your local agency or the FoodShare Helpline for any updates. The FoodShare Helpline is a service of Feeding Wisconsin and its member food banks. This project has been funded at least in part with Federal funds from the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The contents of this publication do not necessarily reflect the view or policies of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, nor does mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.

Stretch your food budget!

What is FoodShare and the QUEST CARD?

FoodShare helps stretch your budget by depositing money on a debit-like card once per month to help buy food.

You may qualify if your household's gross monthly income is less than...

	$2,510
	$3,408
	$4,304
	$5,200
For each additional person add $898

If you are 60 years old or older and/or have a disability, you may qualify even if your income is over the limit listed above.

Income guidelines are valid through September 2025

Applying is fast, easy, and confidential!

Call the toll-free FoodShare Helpline with any questions or to set up a confidential appointment. Se habla español.

1-877-366-3635
GetAQuestCard.org

The FoodShare Helpline is a service of Feeding Wisconsin and its member food banks. This project has been funded at least in part with Federal funds from the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The contents of this publication do not necessarily reflect the view or policies of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, nor does mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.

This institution is an equal opportunity provider.